“As fire exists in each and every piece of paper similarly knowledge exists in each and every piece of mind and that is where this forum is well proved”

Dear Parents,

Namaskar!

We are thrilled to announce the National Talent Times - Art Competition 2024-25, organized by the Centre for Educational Development & Research (Pune, Maharashtra). This competition provides a fantastic platform for talented students from all over India to showcase their artistic abilities and gain recognition within the art community. The organization goal is to inspire creativity and artistic expression among students across the country.

JPIS invite all students to participate in this event and unleash their artistic talents. The competition is divided into four groups, each category to different grade levels

Participation Groups: The competition is divided into four groups based on grade levels:

- Group 1: Pre-Nur to I
- Group 2: Grades II to IV
- Group 3: Grades V to VII
- Group 4: Grades VIII to X

The competition offers a range of creative categories for students to choose from

1. Painting (colouring)
2. Handwriting
3. Drawing and Painting
4. Rangoli on paper

Registration Details:

- Registration Charge: Rs. 80 per competition
- Students can participate in a minimum of one competition and a maximum of four competitions.
- Parents are kindly requested to send the appropriate amount by 13/07/24 for their ward's participation based on the number of competitions they wish to enter.

Regards,

Ms. Ruby Chandel (Principal)
